| Covers 3.U1.1 3.U1.2 3.U1.4 3.MBC.1 When telling the time, the word “jam” always comes first. e.g. jam satu = 1 o’clock “jam” can mean hour, clock or o’clock. The word “jam” sounds like “jarm” as the “a” makes an “ar” sound. |  | Ruben introduces unit Stage Three Unit, All about me - My Day | |
| One tricky part about telling the time in Indonesian is that “half to” is used, not “half past” e.g. jam setengah dua = Half to 2 or half an hour until 2 o’clock |  | kurang = to setengah = half lebih = past menit = minute seperempat = a quarter jam berapa? = what time is it? berapa jam? = how many hours? | Listen by clicking on the speaker and repeat. |
| The word kurang can be used to mean “less” or “to”. The word “lebih” can be used to mean “more” or “past”. |  | 1. jam empat (4 o’clock) 2. jam delapan (8 o’clock) 3. jam lima (5 o’clock) 4. jam setengah dua (half to 2 o’clock) Or half past 1 5. jam setengah sembilan (half to 9 o’clock) or half past 8 | Listen by clicking on the speaker and repeat. |
| |  | When telling the time using “to” and “past”, the hour in Indonesia is said first and then the minute. This is the opposite of what we do. | |
