

Bahasa Indonesia

Nama saya Kartini tetapi panggil Tini.

What's your name?

My name is Kartini, but often I'm called Tini.

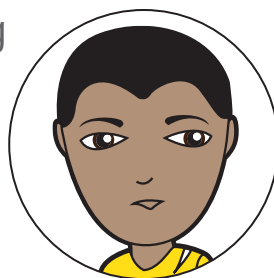

Have you ever noticed how we often shorten names? An example is Edward becomes Ted or Therese becomes Tess. Sometimes we even substitute names, an example would be James being called Jim.

What does your name shorten to?
What about other people in your class?

Introduce yourself

I introduce myself by saying "Nama saya Kartini, tetapi panggil saya Tini." This means "Hi my name is Kartini, but you can call me Tini."

How would Hartono introduce himself?

---

---

---

Why not practice introducing yourself?

What are these adults saying?

Nama saya Ali Isan, tetapi panggil saya Pak Isan.

---

---

---

Nama saya Rini Santoso, tetapi panggil saya Bu San.

---

---

---

Bahasa Indonesia

Saying Goodbye

There are even different ways to say goodbye.

Sampai nanti

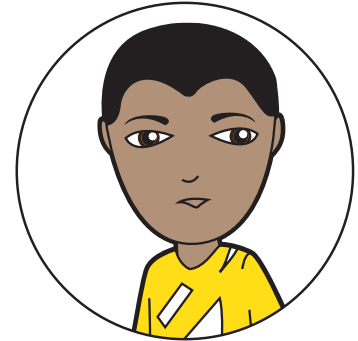

See you later,
usually the same day

Sampai jumpa

See you later,
when we meet again

Sampai jumpa lagi

Until we meet again,
after a long time

How to respond?

Work out a suitable response for each of these sentences.

Selamat pagi. Siapa nama kamu?

_____

Selamat pagi. Siapa nama kamu?

_____

Selamat pagi. Siapa nama kamu?

_____

Selamat pagi. Siapa nama kamu?

_____

For Fun!

Make a comic strip using the vocabulary you have learned so far.