

Lesson Focus	Slide	Content	Activities
Covers 3.U1.1 3.U1.2 3.U1.4 “Saya” can mean I or My. If it comes after the noun, it will mean “my”. If it comes before the noun, it will mean “I”. e.g. Saya sakit kepala (I have a headache) Kepala saya sakit (My head hurts) Phrases to learn: 1. Apa yang sakit? (What hurts?) 2. Ada masalah apa? (What’s the matter?)		Arial introduces unit Stage Three Unit, My Body - Aches and Pains
		<table border="0"> <tr> <td>kepala = head</td> <td>jari = fingers</td> </tr> <tr> <td>mata = eyes</td> <td>bibir = lips</td> </tr> <tr> <td>telinga = ear</td> <td>gigi = teeth</td> </tr> <tr> <td>hidung = nose</td> <td>rambut = hair</td> </tr> <tr> <td>perut = stomach</td> <td>lutut = knee</td> </tr> <tr> <td>kaki = leg</td> <td>leher = neck</td> </tr> </table>	kepala = head	jari = fingers	mata = eyes	bibir = lips	telinga = ear	gigi = teeth	hidung = nose	rambut = hair	perut = stomach	lutut = knee	kaki = leg	leher = neck	Look and listen to the Indonesian word. Type in the matching English Translation When correct you will automatically move on to the next question
kepala = head	jari = fingers
mata = eyes	bibir = lips
telinga = ear	gigi = teeth
hidung = nose	rambut = hair
perut = stomach	lutut = knee
kaki = leg	leher = neck
		1. Saya sakit kepala = I have a headache 2. Kepala saya sakit = My head hurts	Here are some phrases to learn. Note that the word “saya” changes it’s meaning depending where it is in the sentence.

Lesson Focus	Slide	Content	Activities
		Translate these sentences. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Saya sakit telinga = I have an ear ache 2. Telinga saya sakit = My ear hurts 	We can use the word “sakit” to mean “ache” (or “sore”). Ear ache would be, “sakit telinga”. Rub and reveal the correct answer
		Translate <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. I have a tooth ache = Saya sakit gigi 2. My tooth hurts = Gigi saya sakit 	If “Saya sakit telinga” is, “I have an ear ache”, how would we write, “I have a tooth ache”? Click on the button for the correct translation. When correct the screen will automatically change to the next question.