

Bahasa Indonesia

Lesson Focus	Slide	Content	Activities
Covers 3.UJ.1 3.UJ.4 3.MLC.2 <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>•Similarly to us, Indonesians link the greeting given to the time of day.</li> <li>•The word “kamu” means “you”</li> <li>•Vocab for slide 2 includes:               <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>kamu – you</li> <li>tidur – to sleep</li> <li>Saya – I (when starting the sentence)</li> <li>Bermain – play</li> </ul> </li> <li>•The words pagi, siang, sore and malam can be used if needed to indicate the time of day something happens.</li> </ul> Indonesian dictionaries will be needed to insert activities into the sentences.		Yanti Introduces Unit - Time - What time is it?
		Selamat pagi = Sunrise – 10 or 11am Selamat siang = 11am – 3pm Selamat sore = 3pm – 6pm Selamat malam = 6pm until sunrise	Revision: Indonesians use four main greetings. It depends on the time of the day as to which one is used. Listen to and repeat the greetings.
		Pada jam berapa kamu tidur? = At what time do you go to bed? Saya tidur pada jam sembilan malam. = I go to bed at 9.00pm	Listen to, repeat and look at the structure of these questions and answers. Your answer could be slightly different! It is important to remember the word “kamu” means “you”.
		Pada jam berapa kamu bermain bola basket? = At what time do you play basketball? Saya bermain bola basket pada jam sembilan pagi = I play basketball at 9.00am	The words pagi, siang, sore and malam can be used instead of am

Bahasa Indonesia

Lesson Focus	Slide	Content	Activities
	 AM or PM? Listen &amp; say the time and decide whether it is am or pm. Rub the panels to reveal the answers. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>jam enam pagi <input type="checkbox"/></li> <li>jam tujuh malam <input type="checkbox"/></li> <li>jam delapan pagi <input type="checkbox"/></li> <li>jam empat sore <input type="checkbox"/></li> </ul>	jam enam pagi = 6am  jam tujuh malam = 7pm  jam delapan pagi = 8am  jam empat sore = 4pm	Revision: Indonesians use four main greetings. It depends on the time of the day as to which one is used. Listen to and repeat the greetings.
	 AM or PM? It is time for you to write some questions, in Indonesian, for your classmates. Use your worksheets or the sample questions below to help. You will need to answer them in Indonesian as well! <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Pada jam berapa kamu sepak bola? (What time do you play soccer?)</li> <li>Pada jam berapa kamu membaca? (What time do you read?)</li> </ul>	Here's two more examples before you try! <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Pada jam berapa kamu bermain sepak bola? = What time do you play soccer? Work out the response as a class.</li> <li>Pada jam berapa kamu membaca? = What time do you read?</li> </ol>	It is time for you to write some questions (in Indonesian) for your classmates. Use your worksheets or slide 2 to help. They will need to answer them in Indonesian as well! At the moment you may only be able to use "o'clock" times